Dear Marcy,

Happy February.

February is heart month, but it is also the month for giving. We hope you'll take us up on our suggestion to give yourself the gift of the Inspired Learning Model™ and enroll in one of our upcoming classes. See below for more information.

Facebook Discussions

A couple of weeks ago, we initiated discussions about the Inspired Learning Model's core philosophy, the Standards of Presence, via an inquiry video related to each of the Standards in the order they appear in the Inspired Learning Model™ Handbook. We want to thank those of you who are contributing your valuable time and insight as you share your own experiences, thoughts and comments with us.

If you haven't yet joined the discussions, please go there now and listen to the videos Peter Reding has created for you. We look forward to hearing about your experiences related to one or more of the Standards of Presence. Join us and engage in the discussions at:

Join Us in Engaging With One or More of Our Four Key Audiences

When we determined our key audiences for the next three years, we were also very clear that this means having some of you (of course the more of you, the better) initiate contact and discussions with one or more of these audiences either locally or nationally. Are you currently involved with one of the following audiences through a work or other relationship or through a board position:

1. Teachers
2. Parents
3. Adult Learning Facilitators/Organizational Trainers
4. Educational Leaders/Policy Makers

Do you know somebody who could introduce you to a key player working with one of these audiences or are you interested in bringing the Inspired Learning Model to a school, a parent group, an institution or a group of visionaries or others? Or, you might have a working relationship with someone who has access to a source of funding, and could initiate a partnership with the Foundation for Inspired Learning. Please consider how we might be able to work together to bring the Inspired Learning Model to any one of these areas over the next three years, but, this year, in particular. It could be just an initial 2 hour presentation of the Model™, bringing facilitator Certification to a group, or it could be the beginning of something larger. We would love to hear from you--if this is you, please contact Marcy via marcyjohnsrude@inspiredlearning.org

Share Your Experience with Inspired Learning

Thank you to those of you who have already contacted Peter Reding to "present" your experience with the Inspired Learning Model. If you are interested and willing to share how you use the Inspired Learning Model™ as a teacher, parent, adult learning facilitator/organizational trainer, or educational leader/policy maker--your presentation can be as short as 5 minutes. Contact Peter Reding to schedule a time - Preiding@inspiredlearning.org
